

Howard County Friends of Latin America presents:

Comprehensive Immigration Reform: History and Future

Saturday, October 5, 2013
2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Howard County Central Library
10375 Little Patuxent Pkwy
Columbia, MD 21044

Featured Speaker: Luis F. Salgado, JD, Immigration Attorney

Luis F. Salgado has practiced immigration law in the Washington, DC Metro Area with Salgado & Associates, PLLC since 1982. This immigration law firm serves governmental, organizational, and individual clients from around the world. Mr. Salgado's expertise includes analysis, strategy development, education, counseling, and direct assistance in the area of immigration law. Prior to opening the Firm, he was Director of the Division of Spanish Surnamed Americans at the US Department of Health and Human Services, where he was Chief Advisor to the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation. Since 1990 Mr. Salgado also hosts a local daily radio show that covers the latest questions about immigration reform and offers advice to callers. He also is a frequently invited expert on various national radio and TV shows.

Attorney Luis F. Salgado will provide (a) a brief history of how the United States ended up with today's broken immigration system, (b) examples of the impact of said broken system on the present & future of our country, and (c) details of current legislative proposals in Congress.
